RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

SAMUEL L.

Sam was a highly trained Land Surveyor in the Army Air Force, performing tasks that included surveying, drafting, and soil testing. His job was to make sure that every project operated smoothly and without unforeseen problems. Sam was also a pilot and had been flying since the early age of 18. Today, you can catch Sam outside soaking up the sun, and enjoying his favorite sandwich, a peanut butter and jelly!

BINGEING ON

Bingo

Our Melrose Gardens residents sure love to play Bingo! This thrilling game of chance is both challenging and competitive.

Most importantly, when you win, you get Bingo! dollars! Winners can use their prize money to purchase items at our Resident Auctions. It could be a snack, toiletries, or something small but useful for their apartments. Bingo! dollars helps to make the game even more exciting! One thing is for certain, when residents are playing Bingo, you'll know where to find them, as the room is filled with energy from the residents who are all laughing, yelling, and shouting out "Bingo!"
